

The End of the World Surfing Route The Wave Experience Chile

Official Program

Day 1.

Santiago – Curanipe

We will meet in Roasters and Co Café (Av Apoquindo 4700, Las Condes – 280 meters from Escuela Militar Subway Station) to enjoy a light breakfast and meet each other. Then, we will be hitting south to Curanipe in our private van.

In the 4.5 hours' drive we will have lunch in a classic Chilean restaurant in Ruta 5 Sur Highway, our main highway that connects all our country.

We will arrive to Curanipe and stay in beautiful boutique hotel that is right in from of a surf break. You can have the first afternoon for yourself (you choose: surfing, paddle boarding, hot tube, whatever you want).

We will have a welcome dinner in the hotel.

Curanipe: A magical country town with uncrowded surf spots, where 30ft lefts have been ridden.

Day 2.

Curanipe – Buchupureo.

After enjoying a nice breakfast at the hotel, you will have the morning for some surfing just a few meters from the hotel.

At noon, we will drive to Buchupureo – a magical beach town 40 kms south from Curanipe. Lunch time will be in a cozy typical restaurant, and then you can choose from a trekking in the gorgeous Parque Las Nalkas, or you can surf in the well-known Buchupureo beach, our own “Indonesia”.

Buchupureo: A hidden gem, this town offers a standout break with La Boca, grooming the sand into long lefts.

At the end of the day, we will have dinner in the hotel (seafood, fresh products, amazing veggies, all Chilean food with a Mediterranean twist).

Day 3.

Curanipe

After breakfast, let's go SUPing in one of the rivers of Curanipe. Paddle in the morning is good for your health ☺

We will come back to the hotel to enjoy lunch. After this you will have the afternoon for yourself (surf, sup, a walk in this beautiful beach, taste some awesome Chilean wine...). By night, we will enjoy in an amazing restaurant in Buchupureo.

Day 4.

Llico

Awesome breakfast. Then, we will hit to Llico, a tiny beach town 180 kms north from Curanipe. Here we will stay in a charming Hotel surrounded by forest and the Pacific Ocean. This is the place to relax, where a superb restaurant and the most breathtaking ocean views are waiting for you.

The End of the World Surfing Route The Wave Experience Chile

Llico: a rugged little seaside town perched on the edge of an exposed sandy beach with powerful waves. A windy spot, perfect also for windsurf and kitesurf.

After lunch, you can enjoy the rest of the day as you please. Afternoon surf yoga is available for everyone though. At 8pm you will experience your first dinner in Llico, with a breathtaking view of the Pacific Ocean.

Day 5.

Llico

Shortly after breakfast, we will have another SUP tour in the beautiful Vichuquén lake.

Vichuquén Lake: 40 square kilometers of calm waters, this lake offers lots of outdoor activities. Its peninsulas and bays are combined with amazing deep forests. Black-necked swans are a common sight on Lago Vichuquén and nearby you will find Laguna Torca, a protected environmental area.

Back to the hotel, you will choose from a trekking in a deep forest or surfing/ windsurfing in Llico beach. Yoga at 6pm, and then a nice meal in the hotel.

Day 6.

Llico

We will start early today, after breakfast, hitting to Pichilemu, the Chilean Paradise for surfers.

Pichilemu is one of the primary surfing destination in Chile, and has three beaches nearby for different skill level:

La Puntilla (The Point): The long line-up has treated many to the longest rides in Chile. Massive currents and cold water.

Punta de Lobos (Wolves Point): ranks as the most consistent break in all Chile.

We will enjoy a seafood lunch in our boutique hotel in Pichilemu.

Then, we will go to the surfer's hot spot: Punta de Lobos.

Nice dinner in a cool seafood restaurant in the town to celebrate The Wave Experience Chile.

Day 7.

Pichilemu

After breakfast, we will check the conditions and we will choose between Punta de Lobos or Infiernillo for surfing. For lunch time, we will visit a soul-food restaurant in the heart of Pichilemu, and you could do some souvenir shopping in the little shops nearby.

The afternoon is for yourself (surf, trekking, yoga, you name it!).

By night, we will hit downtown for a nice dinner by the ocean.

Day 8.

Pichilemu

The End of the World Surfing Route The Wave Experience Chile

Awesome breakfast early in the morning. Then we will go to Cahuil Lake for a SUPing tour.

Cahuil Lake: one of the most beautiful lakes surrounded by a massive forest. The production of salt is a very old practice in this area. It is known that the indigenous people extracted salt in a very rudimentary way. Now the production has improved using modern methods. The “Salineros de Cahuil” (rural cooperative that produce salt) is one of the Living Human Treasures by UNESCO.

We will have lunch in a typical Chilean restaurant, and in the afternoon, you can surf again in Punta de Lobos.

This night is special; you will have your farewell dinner enjoying a Chilean “asado”, tasting silky Carmenere wine and sharing the night with your (new) friends.

Day 9.

Pichilemu

Our last day. After breakfast, you can take your last photos of this magical surf town. We will be hitting Santiago after breakfast, and will stop in the route for a nice farewell lunch in a tiny rural town.

We will come back to Santiago around 5 pm to the same meeting point in Las Condes district.
